Ideas for Participation:

Fingerplays and action rhymes help your child learn new words through rhythm and repetition. In addition, fingerplays will improve your child's motor skills and coordination. Practice the fingerplays and action rhymes between stories to keep your child's attention and to enhance the storytime experience.

We're Looking
Sung to: "London Bridge"

We are looking for something red,
Something red, something red.
We are looking for something red.
Here is an apple!

(Substitute colors and the item you are looking for)

Little Color Fish

Five little fishes swimming near the shore,
The red snapper took a bite and then there were four.

Four little fishes swimming in the sea,
The orange roughy swam away and then there were three.

Three little fishes in the ocean blue,
The pink salmon took a seahorse ride and then there were two.

Two little fishes, swimming in the sun,
The yellow perch swam too far and then there was one.

One little blue marlin, now you're all alone,
I'll put you in my fish bowl and take you home.
