Ideas for Participation:

Fingerplays and action rhymes help your child learn new words through rhythm and repetition. In addition, fingerplays will improve your child's motor skills and coordination. Practice the fingerplays and action rhymes between stories to keep your child's attention and to enhance the storytime experience.

Move Like Me

Move your body just like me.
I am big and I am gray.
I have enormous ears, you see.
I have a trunk to get my hay.
(Move like an elephant, swing one arm in front of you like a trunk)
What am I? (Encourage your child to answer aloud)
An elephant!

Move your body just like me.
I am ferocious and I am strong.
I have a grand mane, you see.
I am the king of the jungle.
(Roar like a lion and fluff your hair.)
What am I? (Encourage your child to answer aloud)
A lion!

Move your body just like me.
I am small and make no sound.
I have fins and a tail, you see.
I am water bound.
(Pretend to swim like a fish)
What am I? (Encourage your child to answer)
A fish!

Five Little Bears

Five little bears were dancing on the floor. (Hold five fingers up)
One fell down and that left four.
(Put one finger down)
Four little bears climbed up a tree,
one found a bee hive and that left three.
(Put one finger down)

Three little bears wondering what to do, one chased a bunny rabbit and that left
two. (Put one finger down)
Two little bears looking for some fun,
one took a swim and that left one.
One little bear sitting alone. He looked around and then ran home.
